1. Replying to your letter of the 28th inst., the files of this Department disclose the following:

Captain Bryan Marsh, distinguished officer of the late Confederate War, was mustered into the service of Co. B, Frontier Battalion, as Commanding officer on Dec. 15, 1860, serving until the company was disbanded on August 31, 1861.

2. The following report will be of interest to you:

Fort Concho.
Feb. 11, 1861.

Gen. Jno. B. Jones,
Adjt. Gen. of State,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

Below please find record of operations of my Co. from Feb. 1st to present date.

Feb. 1st.

Private Miles left Camp for Fort Concho on Co. business. Returned on 4th. Traveled 140 miles.

Feb. 4th.

Capt. Bryan Marsh with 21 men and 6 days rations left Camp for Fort Concho in accordance with a request contained in a petition, signed by the Dist. Judge and Dist. Atty. of the 26th Judicial Dist. and Sheriff of Tom Green Co. in behalf of the citizens of San Angelo to help preserve civil order. As the Federal soldiers had threatened to burn and pillage their town. Arrived in Fort Concho on evening of 5th and found that the soldiers both black and white, some fifty or more strong, had marched into the town the past night and fired several hundred shots in rapid succession into the town, confining however, the main portion of their shots to the destruction of "Nimitz Hotel" completely riddling the building with bullets. One man was severely wounded in the leg while standing in the front door of S.C. Robertson's store. The attack was made between 9 and 10 o'clock P.M. Capt. Marsh put his men under strict orders and stationed strong guards at different parts of the town, also sending Corp. Sedberry with 4 men to Ben Ficklin to guard the jail at the request of the Sheriff of Tom Green Co. Soon after arrival in town Capt. Marsh called on Col. Grierson, Col., Comdg. the Fort for assistance to preserve the peace, which was granted. A Lieut. and 13 men were stationed at the Tankersly Hotel on nights of 5th and 6th. Feb. 6th.

No. 2.

Corp. Sedberry who was detailed to go to Ben Ficklin returned to Camp. Traveled 8 miles.

Respectfully,

Bryan Marsh
Capt. Comdg. Co. B Front. Batt.*

Thomas D. Barton,
The Adjutant General.
